How Are COVID-19 Antivirals Covered By Insurance?

Antiviral treatments are available with a prescription at no or low-cost to most people

	PAXLOVID	LAGEVRIO
Medicaid Medicare Tricare and VA Community Care Network Uninsured	Your PAXLOVID may be free with a voucher through the US Government Patient Assistance Program (USG PAP) operated by Pfizer. To enroll in the USG PAP call 1-877-219-7225 or visit PAXCESS Patient Portal To find COVID-19 medications near you, visit treatments.hhs.gov	Lagevrio may be available with low co-pay through Medicare Part D and some state Medicaid prescription drug programs. For financial help, call 1-800-727-5400 or visit merckhelps.com/LAGEVRIO which provides Lagevrio free of charge if you are eligible.
Federal Sources	You can access Paxlovid for free through federal sources, including HRSA-supported health centers, Indian Health Service, and others.	You can access Lagevrio for free through federal sources, including HRSA-supported health centers, Indian Health Service, and others.
Private Insurance	Check with your insurance provider about coverage. Patients with private insurance may be eligible for the PAXCESS Co-Pay Savings Program. You can save up to $1,500 in out-of-pocket costs. Enroll in the in the Co-Pay Savings Program to download and activate a co-pay card.	Check with your insurance provider about coverage. Eligible patients with private insurance may pay as little as $10 per prescription with a Lagevrio savings coupon from Merck. Visit lagevrio.com/patients/coupon/ for savings offer.

These include pharmacies participating in PAXCESS US Government Patient Assistance Program operated by Pfizer.

This is part of the MerckHelps Patient Assistance Program.*

cveep.org